Access Statement for Tarn House Holiday Park

Introduction

Tarn House is situated on a peaceful location in the Yorkshire countryside but only a stone's throw from the historic town of Skipton. Tarn House Holiday Park offers a relaxing break away.

Tarn House achieved its 4* Gold rating from Visit England last year as it reflects the superb facilities and the overall general ambience of the Park.

A leafy driveway guides you up a slight hill past the holiday homes to the recently restored 17th Century Country Inn where the Park facilities are situated. Sympathetic to their surroundings, the holiday homes have superb views across the Yorkshire Dales and beyond.

The Inn has been carefully modernised yet retains many of its historic features. The stone building with its paved patio area and gardens now host the Park's reception, sales office, conference room, licensed bar and dining area. With unrivalled views across the Yorkshire Dales, Tarn House is the perfect park to relax and unwind.

Tarn House Holiday Park is close to the thriving market town of Skipton and is the perfect base to explore the Yorkshire countryside.

The site has holiday homes owned both privately and by Partington's, there are also lodges. The holiday homes for hire are static caravans. The site is accessible by all, but has sloped areas.
